

U.S. Department of Justice

*United States Attorney
District of New Hampshire*

*Federal Building
55 Pleasant Street, Room 352
Concord, New Hampshire 03301*

603/225-1552

MEDIA RELEASE
For Immediate Release
Tuesday, June 17, 2003

Contact: Thomas P. Colantuono
United States Attorney
Helen White Fitzgibbon
Assistant U.S. Attorney
(603) 225-1552

ECUADORIAN MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO PASSPORT FRAUD

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE: United States Attorney Tom Colantuono reports that 27-year-old Angel Edmundo Salinas of Brooklyn, New York, pleaded guilty today in U.S. District Court in Concord to one count of passport fraud.

Salinas, who is a citizen of Ecuador, was indicted last November for attempting to obtain a United States passport by fraud. He falsely stated on his United States Passport Application that he was born in the United States, and he attached a counterfeit birth certificate to his Application that purported to show that he was born in Trenton, New Jersey. Salinas' passport application was received and reviewed by the National Passport Center located in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, where the fraud was discovered.

Commenting on this case, United States Attorney Tom Colantuono said, "A United States Passport is the most coveted travel document in the world. It immediately identifies the holder as a United States citizen to the rest of the world. Efforts to defraud the United States into issuing a passport to someone who is not entitled to receive it cannot and will not be tolerated."

Salinas is scheduled to be sentenced at the United States District Courthouse in Concord on October 2, 2003. He faces a possible maximum sentence of ten years and a possible maximum fine of $250,000.

This case was investigated by the Bureau of Diplomatic Security of the U.S. State Department. It is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Helen White Fitzgibbon.